

Free Library Museum Pass Policy

Media - Upper Providence

Please read the terms, complete the contact information and sign to indicate your agreement

General Information

- Delaware County Library cardholders ages 18 and above in good standing (no fines or fees) are welcome to borrow a Museum Pass
- There is no fee to borrow the Pass unless it is returned late, damaged or lost. (see below)
- Borrowers must sign our Museum Pass Policy before checking out a pass for the first time
- Borrowers need to present their library card and the Pass at the Museum
- Each museum has different Pass Admission guidelines described on our Museum Pass webpage
Check the museum's website for general and exhibit information

How long may I keep the Pass?

- The Pass may be borrowed for 3 days and is not renewable
- No holds allowed on a Pass. They are available on a first come, first served basis
- Only one Pass can be borrowed at a time

How do I Pick Up and Return the Pass?

- The Pass must be picked up and returned to Media-Upper Providence Free Library

What if I return the Pass late or lose it?

- There is a $2 late fee for each day the Pass is overdue. The maximum fine is the cost of the membership card for that museum (e.g. $200 for a lost Elmwood Park Zoo pass)
- If the Pass is damaged, the patron will be charged the museum's fee for a replacement card if available.
- If the Pass is lost or stolen, the patron will be responsible for the full cost of a replacement membership pass.

Name _____

Address _____

Phone # _____ Library Card # _____

Driver's License # _____

Signature _____ Date _____